Miami, FL – Lives Amplified Global Institution of World Leaders (the “Institution”) is excited to announce that Former State Senate President Mitch Carmichael has joined the Institution. Mr. Carmichael is recognized for his strong commitment to democratic governance and economic development. He brings a wealth of experience and will contribute to the leadership of the Institution.

Mitch Carmichael is a former Republican member of the West Virginia Senate representing District 4 from 2012 until 2020. Prior to his service in the Senate, Carmichael served in the West Virginia House of Delegates representing District 12 from 2000 through 2012. Carmichael was also a candidate for Governor of West Virginia in the 2011 West Virginia gubernatorial special election. As President of the state Senate from January 2017 to January 2021, he held the title Lieutenant Governor of West Virginia. After 2020, Governor Jim Justice appointed Carmichael as West Virginia's economic development director.

The Lives Amplified Institution of World Leaders is composed of two important entities. Lives Amplified Global Leaders Society ("Society") is an exclusive, invitation-only membership organization that includes current and former presidents, prime ministers, senior government dignitaries, as well as some of the world's largest family offices, investment funds, multinational corporation executives, and influential business and thought leaders. Among its many initiatives, the Society organizes high-caliber networking events and facilitates access to capital, new markets, government contracts, strategic partnerships, and other valuable opportunities for its members. The Lives Amplified Foundation is a distinguished nonprofit. Among many of its global initiatives, it administers online and in-person the Young World Leaders Academy, where selected cohorts of young leaders from around the globe receive mentorship and training on the topics of economic and political leadership from those who lead and continue to lead countries, as well some of the world's largest business and nonprofit organizations. The Academy scholars are also taught by lecturers from the world's most prestigious academic institutions, such as Harvard, Wharton School of Business, Stanford, MIT, Yale, Princeton, Columbia, Oxford, London School of Economics, Johns Hopkins, Shanghai University, and other premier institutions.

Both the Society and the Foundation are working towards the common goal of elevating the well being of humanity across the globe.
