Miami, FL – Lives Amplified Global Institution of World Leaders (the “Institution”) is announcing that Former New York City's Commissioner for International Affairs Edward Mermelstein has joined the Institution. Mr. Edward Mermelstein is recognized for his strong commitment to democratic governance and economic development. He brings a wealth of experience and will contribute to the leadership of the Institution.

Edward Mermelstein is a former Commissioner of International Affairs for the City of New York under the administration of Mayor Eric Adams from 2022 to July 2025. In this role, he was responsible for foreign direct investment and international cooperation, and led initiatives that strengthened the city's economic resilience, contributed to the development of housing construction and the creation of new jobs, which established New York as a leader in the field of responsible management of artificial intelligence. Edward's experience in navigating international markets led him to be named one of New York City's 10 most influential figures in real estate.

The Lives Amplified Global Institution of World Leaders is composed of two important entities. Lives Amplified Global Leaders Society \(“Society”\) is an exclusive, by invitation-only Membership organization that includes current and former presidents, prime ministers, senior government dignitaries, as well as some of the world's largest family offices, investment funds, multinational corporations, as well as influential business and thought leaders. Among its many initiatives, the Society organizes high-caliber events across the world. The Society also assists nations with foreign direct investments, infrastructure project financing, bringing local businesses and opportunities into the world, as well as brining the world of opportunities into nations. It carries out international trade missions, establishes country-specific Commerce Councils on its interconnected global ecosystem and facilitates access to capital, strategic partnerships, new markets, government contracts and other valuable opportunities for its Members and the Institution's Member States.

The Lives Amplified Foundation \(“Foundation”\) is the Institution's nonprofit arm where distinguished Members lead various high impact humanitarian initiatives that are supported by the Lives Amplified Global Institutional Platform of World Leaders and the international ecosystem of extraordinary Members.

Among many of its global initiatives, the Foundation also established the Young World Leaders Academy, where selected cohorts of young leaders from around the globe receive mentorship and training online and in-person on the topics of economic and political leadership from those who lead and continue to lead countries, as well some of the world's largest family offices, businesses and nonprofits. The Academy scholars are also taught by lecturers from the world's most prestigious academic institutions, such as Harvard, Wharton School of Business, Stanford, MIT, Yale, Princeton, Columbia, Oxford, London School of Economics, Johns Hopkins, Shanghai University, and other premier institutions.

Both the Society and the Foundation are working towards the common goal of elevating the well being of humanity and bringing socioeconomic prosperity across the globe.
