Miami, FL – Lives Amplified Global Institution of World Leaders (the “Institution”) is excited to announce that former Minister of Culture, Multiculturalism & Status of Women of Canada Leela Aheer has joined the Institution. Mrs. Leela Aheer is recognized for her strong commitment to democratic governance and economic development. She brings a wealth of experience and will contribute to the leadership of the Institution.

Prior to entering politics, Aheer was a professional vocal coach and music teacher, who instructed singing in seven languages, owned and operated businesses as an entrepreneur, and was heavily involved in the arts, volunteerism and community service. Leela Aheer began her political career with a notable victory in 2015 by becoming a Member of the Legislative Assembly of Alberta for Chestermere-Strathmore. A strong advocate for unity, she supported the merger of Alberta's conservative parties and was appointed deputy leader of the United Conservative Party, where she championed centrist and inclusive values. As Minister of Culture, Multiculturalism, and Status of Women, she led impactful initiatives such as Alberta's Clare's Law and the province's first recognition of Women's Entrepreneurship Day. She also was a Minister responsible for the Francophone Secretariat.

The Lives Amplified Institution is composed of two important entities. Lives Amplified Global Leaders Society (the "Society") is an exclusive, invitation-only membership organization that includes current and former presidents, prime ministers, senior government dignitaries, as well as some of the world's largest family offices, investment funds, multinational corporation executives, and influential business and thought leaders. Among its many initiatives, the Society organizes high-caliber networking events and facilitates access to capital, new markets, government contracts, strategic partnerships, and other valuable opportunities for its members.

The Lives Amplified Foundation is a distinguished nonprofit. Among many of its global initiatives, it administers online and in-person the Young World Leaders Academy, where selected cohorts of young leaders from around the globe receive mentorship and training on the topics of economic and political leadership from those who lead and continue to lead countries, as well some of the world's largest business and nonprofit organizations. The Academy scholars are also taught by lecturers from the world's most prestigious academic institutions, such as Harvard, Wharton School of Business, Stanford, MIT, Yale, Princeton, Columbia, Oxford, London School of Economics, Johns Hopkins, Shanghai University, and other premier institutions.

Both the Society and the Foundation are working towards the common goal of elevating the well being of humanity across the globe.
